

SEPTEMBER 11 FORUM: Impact on Young Children

The images and stories of September 11, 2001 can raise many questions and reactions in young children. This forum will address how parents, educators, student-teachers and community workers can respond to the potential concerns of children ages 5-9. Principles and concepts presented can also be applied to other difficult situations such as grief, loss, and tragic news.

Thursday, October 6, 2011 from 9 am - 4 pm
Fred M. Rogers Center,
Saint Vincent College, Latrobe, PA
$20 participant fee
(includes continental breakfast and lunch)

For more information and to register by 9/26/11:
<http://www.stvincent.edu/events/september-11-symposium-online-registration> or call 724.805.2177. Limited seating.

Featured speakers from:

Families of Flight 93; Flight 93 National Memorial; The Fred Rogers Company; Carlow University; The Highmark Caring Place; University of Pittsburgh and Shanksville-Stonycreek School District.

Act 48 and DPW approved through PAEYC

(Pittsburgh Association for the Education of Young Children)

Sponsored by:

The National Park Service; Friends of Flight 93; Saint Vincent College and the Fred Rogers Center for Early Learning and Children's Media